Who We Are?

MAWAEVENTS is a uniquely specialized management consulting company that has helped virtually every type of manufacturing and process industry maximize profits by improving reliability and maintenance practices.

What We Can Do For You?

MAWAEVENTS mission is to help our clients increase production reliability and lower manufacturing and maintenance costs. Traditional maintenance approaches generally focus on equipment; our philosophy emphasizes people. MAWAEVENTS works with your team to raise knowledge required to produce the preemptive processes, action and change that will transform your company's organization and garner bottom-line results. Because we don't sell engineering services, parts, tools, equipment or software, our independence translates into objective and credible advice and training for our clients. This means reduced costs, increased safety and maximized profits for you. Don't just take our word for it. Here's what a few of our clients have had to say about us.

MAWA EVENTS APPROCHES EDUCATION

MAWAEVENTS offers three training approaches to ensure we meet the reliability and maintenance needs of your organization.

APPROCHES EDUCATION

1
Best-practice seminars that share universal concepts we've seen succeed in many settings and industries

2
Customized education for your industry and plant

3
On-the-job training with an on-the-job implementation and support component

1 Best Practice Seminar

This popular training approach includes fundamental concepts applicable to many types of industries and shares some universal best practices that we've seen successfully applied in different organizations all over the world.

This approach is often an ideal first step for organizations that want to raise awareness about fundamentals and teach best practices before moving into more specific organizational improvements.

2 The Customized Training

The most effective training tailors the curriculum to your organization. MAWAEVENTS visits your plant to research, learn your culture and create a customized curriculum to meet your particular industry, challenges and opportunities.

3 On the job training with implementation support

MAWAEVENTS consultants can also help you implement improvements in your organization through on-the-job training and consulting support. While the classroom is a good start to an improvement process, applying what's learned doesn't always occur when the training adjourns. MAWAEVENTS on-the-job training and consulting support ensures that learned concepts are applied on the plant floor, in real time. On-the-job training varies widely, depending on organizational needs.

Examples can include:

- ▶ Hands-on Root Cause Problem eliminations
- ▶ Walk inspection routes with your people
- ▶ Help reduce spare parts while keeping the right parts on hand
- ▶ Help standardizing work orders and job plans
- ▶ Documenting preventive maintenance routes and work orders with your people
- ▶ Designing a root cause business process for your plant
- ▶ Identifying and implementing key performance indicators
- ▶ Work with your planners on how to improve planning
- ▶ Help your people conduct daily/ weekly planning and scheduling meetings
