

SUPERVISORY SKILLS TRAINING FOR BETTER WORKPLACES

“Equipping Frontline Supervisors with Practical Tools for Leadership, Communication, and Team Success”

Schedule

Date	Venue	Fees (Face-to-Face)
26 - 27 Feb 2026	Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia	USD 1,995 per delegate
04 - 05 Mar 2026	Dubai, UAE	USD 1,995 per delegate

Introduction

Supervisors are the critical link between management and frontline teams. Their ability to lead with clarity, communicate effectively, and handle day-to-day challenges has a direct impact on productivity, morale, and workplace culture. Yet many new or experienced supervisors lack the training to transition from task-based work to people-based leadership.

This highly practical two-day course is designed to build core supervisory skills, empowering participants to motivate teams, delegate tasks, resolve conflicts, and foster a positive, respectful workplace. Through real-life scenarios, interactive exercises, and practical models, supervisors will gain the confidence and competence to manage both tasks and people with professionalism.

Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Understand the evolving role and expectations of supervisors.
- Communicate clearly and assertively with team members and management.
- Apply structured delegation and time management techniques.
- Motivate individuals and teams across performance levels.
- Resolve interpersonal conflicts and manage performance issues.
- Build a safe, productive, and respectful work environment .

Why Attend

- Strengthen your effectiveness as a team leader or frontline manager.
- Learn to manage people—not just tasks—with greater confidence.
- Build a more respectful, inclusive, and high-performing workplace culture.
