► Available delivery methods: In-House Training

Introduction

Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) factors are transforming how organizations evaluate risk and identify value-creating opportunities. ESG is no longer optional—it is central to risk mitigation, capital access, brand reputation, and long-term performance. Organizations are expected to not only manage ESG risks but also report ESG performance with integrity and relevance.

This intensive 5-day training is designed to provide participants with the strategic insights and practical tools needed to assess ESG-related risks and opportunities and to develop robust, credible ESG reporting aligned with global frameworks such as GRI, SASB, ISSB, and TCFD. The course will prepare professionals to integrate ESG into decision-making, disclosure, and stakeholder communication effectively.

Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Understand the nature and scope of ESG risks and opportunities
- Map ESG risks into enterprise risk management (ERM) frameworks
- Identify material ESG factors for reporting and strategic response
- Utilize international ESG reporting frameworks and standards
- Develop ESG strategies that create long-term value
- Deliver transparent, accurate, and actionable ESG reports
