Introduction

In today’s dynamic environment, effective governance is essential to organizational success, resilience, and long-term sustainability. ISO 37000:2021 provides internationally recognized guidance for the governance of organizations, applicable across sectors and sizes. This training offers a practical roadmap for applying ISO 37000 to support ethical leadership, decision-making, performance, and accountability.

Through structured sessions, hands-on tools, and peer dialogue, this program builds participant capability to interpret, assess, and apply ISO 37000 principles. It bridges governance theory and practice—helping organizations lead with transparency, enhance stakeholder trust, and drive responsible performance.

Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Understand the structure and principles of ISO 37000
- Evaluate governance frameworks in light of ISO 37000 guidance
- Develop strategies for ethical and effective governance practices
- Enhance board and executive roles in value generation and stewardship
- Align organizational purpose, culture, and accountability with governance systems
- Lead governance improvements that address sustainability, ethics, and performance
