Introduction

ISO 37000:2021 is the first international standard providing guidance on the governance of organizations. It offers a comprehensive framework for boards, governing bodies, and senior executives to lead with purpose, ensure accountability, and align with stakeholder expectations while delivering sustainable value.

This course is designed to deepen participants\' understanding of governance principles and how to apply ISO 37000 to build a resilient, ethical, and high-performing governance system. Attendees will explore global governance trends, real-world implementation case studies, and practical tools to strengthen oversight and decision-making across public and private entities.

Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Understand the principles, structure, and purpose of ISO 37000
- Apply ISO 37000 guidelines to build effective governance systems
- Align organizational purpose with strategy, ethics, and sustainability
- Improve accountability and transparency mechanisms
- Strengthen leadership, oversight, and stakeholder engagement
- Evaluate governance effectiveness through performance indicators
