Introduction

The WHS Workplace Safety Awareness (Cluster) course is designed to give workers, supervisors, and contractors a consolidated understanding of essential WHS topics that apply across various industries. By integrating high-risk work awareness and everyday safety practices, this cluster course ensures participants are prepared to identify hazards, follow safe systems of work, and contribute to an injury-free workplace.

Objectives

Participants completing this course will be able to:

- Understand their responsibilities under WHS legislation
- Recognize common workplace hazards and risks
- Apply hazard controls including PPE, signage, and safety protocols
- Respond to incidents, emergencies, and near misses
- Work safely within confined spaces, at heights, and around hazardous materials
