Introduction

In today's globalized financial environment, the risks of money laundering and terrorism financing continue to grow in scale and complexity. Regulators across the world are enforcing stringent compliance requirements, making it essential for financial institutions and organizations to establish strong Anti-Money Laundering (AML) and Counter-Terrorism Financing (CTF) frameworks.

The Anti-Money Laundering & Counter-Terrorism Financing Training course provides comprehensive guidance on detecting, preventing, and responding to financial crimes. It covers international regulatory frameworks, compliance obligations, risk management practices, and investigative techniques to identify suspicious transactions and terrorist financing activities.

Through practical exercises, real-world case studies, and risk-based learning, participants will gain the expertise to implement robust AML/CTF programs and ensure compliance with local and global standards such as FATF, OFAC, and regional financial intelligence regulations.

Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Understand the concepts, methods, and impact of money laundering and terrorist financing.
- Comprehend the global AML/CTF regulatory landscape (FATF, Basel, Egmont Group, etc.).
- Identify and assess money laundering and terrorism financing risks.
- Implement effective Know Your Customer (KYC), Customer Due Diligence (CDD), and Enhanced Due Diligence (EDD) processes.
- Detect and report suspicious transactions in compliance with legal obligations.
- Develop and maintain AML/CTF policies, procedures, and controls.
- Apply risk-based approaches for ongoing monitoring and compliance management.
- Promote a culture of integrity and ethical conduct across the organization.

Why Attend

Financial crimes and terrorism financing not only endanger national security but also threaten organizational reputation and stability. This training equips professionals with the technical knowledge and practical tools to combat these threats effectively.

Participants will learn how to recognize warning signs, conduct due diligence, assess risk, and report suspicious activities in accordance with international best practices. The course bridges theory and practice, ensuring that attendees are prepared to design, implement, and sustain effective AML/CTF programs in their organizations.
