Introduction

The ISO 9001:2015 Transition Training – Quality Management System course is designed to help organizations and professionals effectively transition from previous ISO 9001 versions to the 2015 standard. This training provides a detailed understanding of the new concepts, structure, and requirements introduced in ISO 9001:2015, emphasizing risk-based thinking, process integration, and leadership involvement.

Participants will learn how to interpret and implement the revised clauses, align their existing quality management systems with the new standard, and ensure smooth certification or recertification. The course includes practical tools, gap analysis exercises, and case studies to help organizations achieve compliance while enhancing performance and sustainability.

Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Understand the key changes and updates in ISO 9001:2015.
- Interpret the new structure and terminology of the High-Level Structure (HLS).
- Apply the principles of risk-based thinking and process management.
- Conduct a gap analysis between ISO 9001:2008 and ISO 9001:2015 requirements.
- Revise and update quality policies, objectives, and documentation.
- Strengthen leadership and strategic alignment within the QMS.
- Prepare for a successful transition audit and maintain certification.

Why Attend

The 2015 revision of ISO 9001 emphasizes a more flexible, strategic, and risk-based approach to quality management.
